OUR NEW DEACON

Hi, I would like to introduce myself. I'm Declan Colgan and I was Ordained to the Permanent Diaconate here in the Archdiocese of Dublin last August. I have been appointed by the Archbishop to Brackinstown Parish and the Pastoral Area of Garristown, Naul, Rolestown. I am looking forward to working in this area and getting to know the people in these areas but I know it will be a slow progression due to the Covid 19 restrictions. Please stay safe and God Bless. Declan.
 More information about Declan on our website.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2021 runs from 18th to 25th January with the theme 'Abide in my Love...You Shall Bear Much Fruit' (John 15:5-9). This year's Liturgy was prepared by the Monastic Community of sisters in Grandchamp, Switzerland, who draw much from the spirit of the Taizé Community. Prayer resources on our website.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF DUBLIN
 On 20th December 2020, Pope Francis formally accepted Archbishop Diarmuid Martin's request for retirement. We thank him for more than 16 years of service in the diocese and wish him every happiness in his retirement.

Pope Francis has appointed Bishop Dermot Farrell as the next Archbishop. He is due to be installed on 2nd February when he will begin the important work of shepherding the people and priests of the Archdiocese.

We extend our welcome to him and look forward to working together in furthering the mission of Christ.
 More details on our website.

thank you

A very special thank you to all those who stewarded and ministered at our Christmas Masses - and to those who cleaned and sanitised the churches to make them safe. Your hard work and generosity is very much appreciated.
